

Minutes

Cairns State High School P&C Special Meeting

Date: 21 June 2022

Time: Open 5:35pm

1. Attendance: Glen Burnett, Isobel Moase, Jules Steer and Chris Zilm
2. Apologies: Brendan Begley, Anthony Easton, Margie Booth, Carmen Raynor, Kate Coates (Music Subcommittee – Eisteddfod is on at same time)
3. Welcome: Executive Principal, Chris Zilm, welcomed the members and assumed chair in the absence of President.
4. Matter Arising: Nil

5. Executive vacancies

- EP Zilm tabled and moved to accept the resignations of Secretary (Moase), Vice President (Gane) and President (Shorey) who has been unable to attend several meetings.
- Called for nominations
- President: Jules Steer (elected unopposed)
- Treasurer: Glenn Burnett (continuing)
- Vice President: Carmen Raynor (elected unopposed)
- Secretary: Brendan Begley (elected unopposed)
- EP Zilm moved to have signatures changed on all accounts (Bendigo Bank and Commonwealth Bank) and provide state of accounts to auditor asap. Seconded Glenn Burnett. Unanimous accepted

6. Treasurer Report: Glenn Burnett

- Reports show money in the bank
- Treasure report moved Glenn Burnett Second Isobel Moase: Passed unopposed

7. Music Subcommittee Report: Kate Coates

- From previously scheduled meeting

8. General Business

Fund raising

Next meeting 19th July

7. Meeting closed 6.05 pm.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'C. Zilm', written over a white background.

Christopher Zilm
Secretary, Special P&C Meeting
1/06/2022
Executive Principal

CSHS Music Support Group Report

Chairperson's Report – May 2022

1. Achievements

A very successful 2021 including:

- CSHS Chorale were awarded the winner of the Qld State Schools Choral Fanfare – Creative Generations for most outstanding choral ensemble in Queensland
- Outstanding success at the 2021 Cairns Eisteddfod. Came first in 16 of 17 sections entered!
- Two music nights were successful in raising close to $7000 for the music department, acknowledging the hard work of parents involved in the Music Support group
- 4 of our 2021 Year 12 graduates were selected to study at the Queensland Conservatory of Music

2022 so far:

- AGM held on 23 Feb. New executive team voted in. Request for position holders to be ratified. Thanks to Bill Gane for his 8 years of services as Chairperson.
- 3 General meetings held, 27 current members.
- CSHS Chorale performed for the Director General of Education at the FNQ Principal's Conference on 17 March.
- CSHS Orchestra Masterclass on 20-21 March. Associate Professor Peter Luff, Associate Professor at Queensland Conservatorium Griffith University (QCGU) came up to work with the Orchestra.
- String masterclass with Professor Patricia Pollett 27-28 April
- Instrumental Music night on Friday night at Crosswell Hall – raised approx. $2500.
- Samples are being finalised for the proposed new CSHS music performance uniform.

2. Item(s) of interest

Upcoming events:

- Percussion masterclass with QSO percussionist David Montgomery 19-20 May.
- Instrumental Fanfare competition starting 26 May 2022.
- Chorale camp 28 – 31 May locally in Cairns.
- Cairns High vocal showcase at Crosswell Hall on 9 June.
- Cairns Eisteddfod on 21-22 June at CPAC.

3. Approvals

- Music subcommittee purchased a Square point of sale machine. Approval from P and C requested to set up.
- Further approvals for Music support group executive to be signatories on main music P and C account at Bendigo Bank
- Gambling Community Benefit Fund for 2022 – next round August for grants up to $35 000. Music department would like to apply for a grant for the following instruments:
 - Tubular Bells - $10,000 they are in 1 of the pieces that we are playing for orchestra at the moment
 - 1 x Fox Bassoon $9250
 - 1 x vibraphone to replace broken one $8,000
 - 1 x xylophone to replace 35 year old instrument $8,500
 - Upright piano in the hall over 30 years old and needs to be replaced $15,000